You never took the time to notice
I never wanted it this way
I just don't have the time to argue
But I got one more thing to say

We're not going anywhere
You're a cheat and it's not fair
I know it's not that you don't care
About me

And I won't lie
But I'll pretend to like it when you lie to me
I guess that's just what I'll let you believe

And if we waited here forever
I wonder if these things would change?
So many things you don't remember
I thought you overheard me say

We're not going anywhere
It's a shame that you don't care
What will become of you
When I'm no longer here?

And I won't lie
But I'll pretend to like it when you lie to me
I guess that's just what I'll let you believe

And I'm not sad that my heart is breaking
Maybe it will be for good
I guess you lied
I guess that I lied too
I lied too
I lied too
I lied too
