Lyrics by Van Morrison, 1973

Tell me, tell me, tell me, tell me

All about your love, all about your love

Every little bit

Every little bit of my heart sings

Every little song

Every little song that your love brings

And every day, in every little way

Your love shows

And every day, in every way

Our love grows

You've gotta tell me

Tell me, tell me, tell me

All about your love, all about your love

Lovin' only you, lovin' that is true

Is my prime delight

Lovin' only you, lovin' that is true

In the morning light

Couldn't be another one, uh, no couldn't be another one

Set my soul on fire

Never be another one, never, never be another one

You're my heart's desire

Come on and tell me

Tell me, tell me, tell me

All about your love, all about your love

Ain't it real, ain't it true

Can you feel it

Feel it

Ain't it real, me and you

Can you feel it

Feel it

Darlin', darlin' darlin', darlin'

Come into my arms
Cuddle up, take your time, girl
Show me all your many charms
Let me know that you're mine, girl
Tell me that your the sweetest wine
Like the river let them flow
This is so complete a time
You gotta let me know
Let me know, let me know

You gotta tell me
Tell me, tell me, tell me
All about your love, all about your love
All about your love, all about your love

Come on and tell me
Tell me, tell me, tell me, tell me
Tell me tell me baby
All about your love, all about your love
Tell me all about your, all about, all about all about your love
Tella me, tella me, tella me, tella me
