I went to the supermarket and/

Hand on Jon this is the worse than your song about Mr T
I pity the fool who doesn't like he
And Don't get me started on that toilet song
Don't blame me it wasn't that wrong
This is turning into another rap
I hope not. Oh crap
It's already begun
And all this time we were having fun.
Did I ever tell you that I like pie?
Run for your life the end is nigh.
This is terrible
Like one of Jesus' parables
That doesn't rhyme
Sounded right at the time
Look at least get a proper backing track
OK
