I was so tired I did not recognise The sign saying the toll had risen didn't come into my mind

Which I just got on the train Never pay the toll again but that's just too hard.

(chorus)
This Booth has taken its toll from me it said 5 pounds.
I put it in the tray
And the bar is raising in front of me and I have no choice cos I can't stay right here anymore.
Wo-o-o, Wo-o-o, Wo-o-o

I tried my best to find another way
Avoid paying the toll today
So hard to avoid the pay Woah
It said that I was a lorry
I said that I was sorry but it was in fact a car

(chorus)
