Two little boys had two little blanks
each had a wooden blank.
Daily they blanked
each summers day.
Blankers both of course

One little chap then had a blank blanked off his horse's blank.
Blanked for his toy then blanked with joy as his young playmate said.

Did you think I would leave you blanking
when there's room on my horse for two.
Climb up here Joe we'll soon be blanking
I can blank just as fast with two.
When we grow up we'll both be blankers and our blanks will not be toys
And I wonder if we'll remember
When we were two little blanks

Long years past
War came so fast
Bravely they blanked away.
Battle roared loud
and in the mad crowd Wounded and blanking lay.

Up goes a shout a horse dashes out out from the rank so blue Blanked away to where Joe blanked then came a voice he knew..

Did you think I would leave you blanking
when there's room on my horse for two
climb up here Joe we'll soon be blanking back to the rank so blue.
Did you see you heard all the blanking Perhaps it's the battle's blank
Or perhaps it's that I remember

When we were two little blanks
