Every day and all the games we play
You've got me strung so high I cannot fall
Why would I underestimate
When you got me backed against a wall

You never see me smile
We're both in denial
That's why I'm letting go this time

I am gonna leave you without crying
Gonna forget you without trying
This time I know it's gonna be easy
I can live without you it won't kill me

I might miss all the times we kissed
But it's not enough to make me stay
You lied to me like you lied to yourself
I hope you find the truth out there someday

You never see me smile
We're both in denial
That's why I'm letting go this time

I am gonna leave you without crying
Gonna forget you without trying
This time I know it's gonna be easy
I can live without you it won't kill me

I wanna believe you but it's impossible
I wanna believe you when you say you'll change
I wanna believe that things will get easier
I wanna believe you but you'll never change

(Chorus)
