You're the buyer or the seller
 Makes you want what you can't have
 I'm glad I made you cry
 Makes you go where you can't go
 Makes you want what you can't have
 Desire, desire aaaaaahhh
 AAAAAAAAAHHHH
 Don't think! Don't think! Don't think! Don't think! Don't think! Don't think!
 Go buy! Go buy! Go buy!
 Don't think! Don't think! Don't think!
 Go buy! Go buy! Go buy!
 Don't think! Don't think! Don't think! Don't think! Don't think!

Buying the moment
 Sometimes I want to die in my bed
 All I can think about is
 When are we leaving?
 Every time I think of you I want a cigarette
 Man chooses himself
 Hero with a thousand faces
 It's the third night and the walls are shaking
 Boys buying boys
 Pleasure bringing pain
 it's all the same
 I put my hand by my mouth so I know I'm still breathing
 So we joke about the TV set calling it the eye of hell
 I would love to have people see what I see
 I would love to be a pillar of strength in my community
 A little order, a little grace
 Something new to fill up this place
 Live a thousand lives by picture
 Mark, this song's for you
 Don't think. Go buy.
 I'm a lousy lover
 I give and never take
 Makes you go where you can't go
 Makes you want what you can't have
 AAAAAAAAAHHHH
 Makes you want what you can't have what
 Makes you want what you can't have what
 Makes you want what you can't have what Makes you want what you can't Can't have
 can't
