I tried so hard to get it right
I've tried everything
I tried so hard to get it right
I'd try anything

I've tried so hard to get it right
I tried so damn hard
But I failed

Nice view with a blindfold on a dead dog could smell what's wrong
Sentenced to self abuse a blank note as excuse

In fear of lethal loneliness I tried to hold on

No hope you've got my neck in a rope
Ain't gonna let me out for long
You've got vicious ambitions

High on self esteem the fine line in between Queen of judgemental lies make room for sanity

In fear of lethal loneliness I tried to hold on

No hope you've got my neck in a rope
Ain't gonna let me out for long
You've got vicious ambitions

We're just two dead souls drowning away in a small fishbowl year after year I find no comfort in here Rotting away in the soiled old ground what've we found nowhere to run the same old fears ashamed of tears
Now I wish I wish you were dead yeah I wish you vicious bitch

No hope you've got my neck in a rope
Ain't gonna let me out for long
You've got vicious ambitions
