Proud mother healthy son large sums on a bank account a worldwide vision but you don't discover Read all of them sacred books tryin' hard to find:
It's just a state of mind

Chase the dragon down the street
Big smile on everyone you greet
No thanks authentic one
No thanks pathetic one

Sink deep down in crimson satin be one with the manic
dark

Wake up with a list of secrets never been revealed
Think I've been exposed to hide emotions
Travel everywhere at night time limitless and free
Think I've been exposed to hide emotions

Take a ride in the fortune cookie
In the land of liquid love
Next stop honey town
Next stop money town

Sink deep down in crimson satin be one with the manic

Wake up with a list of secrets never been revealed
think I've been exposed to hide emotions
Travel everywhere at night time limitless and free
Think I've been exposed to hide emotions
