Now drop yourself
With no concern
On how to breathe
When your mind is burned

On optimistic
On overload
Can we shift the heat back
To when your heart grows cold?

In severed light
Our souls are damaged
And with that caged
To the cause of light

Now I can see
Another language
Gone optimistic
We're gonna survive

We're the tail-end of the sun
To a greener hideaway
Where in peace I found my fun
'Til I heard the future say

I'm in an army
A mega-quake
A force of nature
A hella shake

Improve our days now
'Cause we might not sleep tonight
Suffused are we
To the cause of light

On optimistic
On overload
Can we shift the heat back
To when your heart grows cold?

And now we know why
And know what we must do

Aware of the cracks
The heart shines through

We're the tail-end of the sun
To a greener hideaway
Where in peace I found my fun

We're the tail-end of the sun
To a greener hideaway
Where in peace I found my fun
'Til I heard the future

(Would you believe my life was so bright?)
A bed of roses and roller coasters
(Would you believe my life was so fine?)
A bed of roses and roller coasters

(Would you believe my life was so bright?)
(Would you believe my life was so fine?)
A bed of roses and roller coasters
