After the rain, a killer crane
After a rainbow
Across the sky, her gracious glide
Across the sea

Across creation and over time
Her gracious life escapes its station
A cold wind blows, the day bestows
Glum proclamation

Leave it behind, your restless mind
Your jealousies
Then oscillation demands your patience
And we form together in time just to say

Sunshine
I saw you from the hangin' vine
A memory of what was mine
Fading away

But as night heals the ground
And the moonlight steals the sound
I can leave suddenly
Unafraid

And after all, we're free to fall
Once all the pain goes
And how we stood, and what was good
Could lie our soul on

In isolation, a transformation
Your breath that leaves me
Leaves me blue
Embolden us to see it through

This life of love and lighting go
A killer crane after a rainbow
Then we fall together in time just to say

Sunshine
I saw you from the hangin' vine
A memory of what was mine

Fading away

And as night heals the ground
And the moonlight steals the sound
I can leave suddenly
Unafraid

Sunshine
Come crawling from the hangin' vines
A memory of what was mine
Fading away

And as night heals the ground
And the moonlight steals the sound
I can leave suddenly
Unafraid

Sunshine
I saw you through the hangin' vine
Fading away

And as night heals the ground
And the moonlight steals the sound
Unafraid
