"Mercy"

I caught a glimpse of professional evil on the day our poor hearts died.
I fell in love with professional evil on the day you left my side.

I see tons of people looking lost and lethal
and I think we're all the same So I scale a steeple and I take a leap and I just can't keep the stain

from my soul
it burns so cold
it's got to go through my soul
through my soul

Things fall apart in the blink of an eye better keep yours open wide.
Things fall apart in the blink of an eye
and we can't be satisfied.

I seen tons of people
looking lost and lethal
and I know we're all the same.
And though it's gone forever and there's nothing to keep but I still can't scrape the stain

from my soul
it burns so cold
Oh watch it go through my soul
through my soul

Have mercy lord, what can we do Got over me, got over you Gone overboard
Gone two by two

Look over me, look over you

(My life)
I know my life
Can't be my life
My life, can't be my know my life
Can't be my life
My life can't be my know my life
Can't be my life
My life can't be my know my life
Can't be my life

I've lost a love of my life
I've lost a love
Have mercy
Have mercy, mercy, mercy on my life
