Describe: Scattered down thoughts My mind reacts to the past time lost Depression wants to sink its ugly mouth into dialect Reluctant-reflect one-two mic check Flex upon the mecca lies tattooed upon my chest Flustered by the moment I'll put time to the test I'll strive within my soul to put the evil man to rest Blessed beyond silver and gold Unfold the treasure My heart remains untold Cold from this current lack warmth Godly visions stream through like swarm of butterflies and bees sneaking up to sting me but dazed by the gaze of velocity beauty and philosophy Better yet theology to free me from all of these Mortisabstract: Thick between lusting and trusting green Monetary lenses deaden senses to a cremation underworld Keeping relationships at bay tone the groans amute File claims under lost delayed brains against the grain they lay on anti-astute Chemical coons pinch sprinkle herbs in humanities stew to loop confused these headless bumper car mindsets that differ mindlessly Rise above the low life's who strive to feast on the plight of mankind Abstract declines it all Monumental acts spearheaded by false facts Massly initial but only solo beneficial Kill vastly across these thoughts caught up in the nets of our cerebral caught in the nets of our cerebral (Chorus) Of all the words of tongue and pen the saddest are these that might have been x8
