In the corner of my eye
Every time I see you try
To give it your best shot
Showing them who you are
But time after time you stumble and fall behind

Find your way, your way, your way

In the corner of my eye
Every time I see you cry
You beautiful dreamer
The world is a crazy place for someone like you
You're making your own rules now
Find your way, your way, your way
Find you way, your way, your way
Whatever you do
Whoever you are
Whatever you say
