"So Am I"

The wind is blowing
and so am I
The sky is high
and so am I

Yes you made me cry
And the tears will never dry
Though you smiled at me
like a picture in my mind

The night is falling
and so am I
You are dreaming
and so will I

Yes you made me cry
and the tears will never dry
It must've slipped my mind that we were happy sometimes

It seems like yesterday that you took the shortest way Even when I'm old and grey the picture never fades away.
