girl you broke my heart and left me blue that's why i gotta sing this song for you driving in my '59 im wondering where the hell you are i got my 501(?) but I can't get you though I said it wouldn't happen to me it happened once and it happend again she broke my heart into a million pieces

rough boy
shouldn't have a broken heart
rough boy
you gotta live your life real tough

hey, go pat go!

driving in my '59 im wondering where the hell you are
i got my 501(?) but I can't get you
though I said it wouldn't happen to me

rough boy
shouldn't have a broken heart
rough boy
you gotta live your life real tough
rough boy
rough boy
rough boy
shouldnt have a broken heart
rough boy
rough boy
rough boy
you gotta live your life real tough
