Put it down for another vinegar stroke yeah,
Another two way line
You tried to stab me in the back you know
But I just spit in your eye
Your mother tries to read me the lies yall, But I don't understand yeah, You had to make her cry Louder

Chorus

Yeah oh Yeah

I'm cold to myself

Taken it to far this time
Ya piece of shit

Bridge

You try to tell me how much you missed her
You want to tell me you weakling ya
A 1,2,3, I wanna be just like you
I wish I could
I wish I could
