"Truth Amputee"

Visit "Truth Amputee" on MotoLyrics.com

Broken words fractured judgement
Falsehoods unashamed bastards of truth
Left to live breath and germinate
Incubated by fear and an ego eager

To choose what to say to choose what to hide
What to portray
Not what's inside

Such delusion breed illusions
The lies you tell fortify your shell
Which you use to hide from reality
And the duty you are not enough to take

Propagation generation of a civilization of deceit
Fragmented networks fractals of untruth
Conflict inconsistencies contradictions
You dupe others and yourself so I

Refuse what you say and refuse what you hide
What you portray
Your fraudulent life

Like a spider with a leg
Trapped in its own web
The only escape is to amputate
