At first it felt like Novocaine
Numb and then the pain
Now I can't shake it off

Things are getting out of hand
Ones I loved now I can't stand
Nothing making sense to me
Leaving here seems so easy

Take another pill and see
And another one to see
(Waiting for tomorrow)
If it all it helps me
Won't somebody help me?
Can't you see I'm drowning
One more pill is sounding
One more pill is sounding
One more pill

The haze sets in
And the sun is going down
For me this last time
My legs are numb and I can't stand
No one here to hold my hand
Nothing making sense to me
Leaving here seems so easy

Take another pill and see
And another one to see
(Waiting for tomorrow)
If it all it helps me
Won't somebody help me?
Can't you see I'm drowning
One more pill is sounding
One more pill is sounding
One more pill

Dressed in Sunday best
Just to whisper one last wish
Black ties and limousines

At last it feels so peaceful here
Last breath drawn is getting near
Silence getting louder now
Nothing left for me to fear
Alcohol helps fight the fear
Nothing making sense to me
Leaving here seems so easy

Take another pill and see
And another one to see
(Waiting for tomorrow)
If it all it helps me
Won't somebody help me?
Can't you see I'm drowning
One more pill is sounding
One more pill is sounding
One more pill

One more pill
One more pill
One more pill
One more pill.
