To fight for Queen and country
To rage in bloody wars
To shoot without a conscience
To die without a cause

They gave us guns for toys
They showed us how to play
So we became the dogs of war
To blow ourselves away

To fight for Queen and country
To rage in bloody wars
To shoot without a conscience
To die without a cause

The power and the glory
The power and the glory

And so it came to pass
Oh, we had killed a fellow man
Oh, we raised our flags on peace
Oh, all the pride was in our heads

To fight for Queen and country
To rage in bloody wars
To shoot without a conscience
To die without a cause

The power and the glory
The power and the glory
The power and the glory
The power and the glory

To fight for Queen and country
To rage in her bloody wars
To shoot without a conscience
To die without a cause

The power and the glory
The power and the glory
The power and the glory
The power and the glory
