We said goodbye
For too many times
We've got so many faces but just one heart
Taken apart

He is the one, he is the one
Forgotten child
He is the one, he is the one
Forgotten child

We need it so much
Not just a stupid crush
I've got so much to say but there is no way
To make it today

He is the one, he is the one
Forgotten child
He is the one, he is the one
Forgotten child

We lost our tracks
And we never came back
You hear your lover's breath but there is no one
Into your arms

He is the one, he is the one
Forgotten child
He is the one, he is the one
Forgotten child
