Tina says don't talk to me like I am deaf and dumb

We've been broken down and broken up so much that I am numb

Talk about don't shout about the people we've become

There's a little girl that's crying over here.

Marcus says don't shout at me like I was born a fool

You speak of love and scream of love how dare they treat me cruel

Nothings fair in love and war, so please lets make some rules,

There's a little boy who's crying over here

(Chorus)

Did you ever know me, I swear that I have tried did you ever need me, I feel like I just died

Did you ever want me, I swear that I have tried

How do you tell someone you don't love them

How do you tell someone you don't care anymore

How do you tell someone you don't love them anymore

Tina says the pictures that we took are put away, inside a box of memories for cold and rainy days,

Words and pencils rhyming with the things you never say,

There's a little girl that's crying over here

(Markus all threw)? all his pictures in a wooden box

His wooden heart is tough as nails and solid as a rock keeps himself protected with a combination lock there's a little boy that's crying over here

(Chorus)

Fightin makes me tired

(in my ?)

lying makes me tired

(there's a smile?)

hurting makes me tired

(hold me tight)

lying makes me tired

Tina says I wish that I have never seen you smile your name is written on my soul in alphabetic file all I've got's my dignity, so I won't even style there's a million of us crying over here

did you ever know me I swear that I have tried did you ever need me I feel like I have died

Did you ever want me I swear I swear

how do you tell someone you don't love them

how do you tell someone you don't care anymore

how do you tell someone you don't love them anymore

how do you tell someone you don't love them

anymore

anymore

everytime I talk to you there's no one listening everytime I reach for you there's no one there everywhere I look for you there's no one to be found
