Lately I've been thinking about the past

About the good times

And have they all come and gone

And are there more years behind than ahead

Then I say to myself

Fuck it let's rock

Let's rock let's rock

Let's rock let's rock let's rock

Lately I've been thinkin' who's in charge

About who they are

And are they looking down and laughing hard

And are they aliens or robots or humanoids or gods

I think I'm just paranoid

Fuck it let's rock

Let's rock let's rock

Let's rock let's rock let's rock

BRIDGE:

What if someone takes my cat what if she runs away

What if she gets hit

What if someone takes my chick what if she runs away

I won't be blue

Cuz I know what to do

Lately I've been thinking about my vices

And about the prices

That I'll later have to pay

I've been thinking about myself

And about my health

Then I'll say what the hell

Let's rock let's rock let's rock

Let's rock let's rock let's rock

Let's rock let's rock let's rock

Let's rock let's rock let's rock
