Well there she is undercover

A wild, wild lover

Take a ride and show her off like a movie star

I got all my boys wit' me, Coolio is lookin' spiffy

And I'm lookin' for a safe spot to park the ride

I slipped the man a twenty, the keys to a Hunsay

Have a backin', 45 eating sure's to the wink

And jumps into the frontseat

Purring like a kitty, she throws her ass in drive

You can hear it comin', a big 8 hummin'

Stereo thumping through American steel

With the "boom-boom-tick", the bass so sick

The line so sick, sittin' on stock wheels

'65 dons-a truck inside, with a hoola-hoop

Shaking by the dashboard - lights

I gonna keep the chrome out of the ride

I gotta keep it clean, I gotta keep it tide (Sounds like Steve to me)

CHORUS:

Born in the '60's

When they still took pride

Making sure the need-you was a -

Swank, Swank, Ride

"Hey you gonna slow that car down?!"

To the bounce

I get when I'm waiting at the lights

The cops, the kids, their checkin' out the ride

And I, I like the ??? back, but I'm never rocking nice

But if you wanna drag, I think you better think twice

A natural born killer's still quick and precise

And a little bit of this, could you wonder what I got?

Well it don't stop

I keep a ???, out of sight

Far-out green, and berry-white

'Cause we're on our way up, inspiration calls

The ladies hit it hard with their sexy charms

I hit a ??? as it's goin' off

And I wonder who she likes more -

Me or the car?

CHORUS

(Then Coolio raps a bunch of hard to understand crap)

CHORUS (And the chorus trails off
