Hey there, I don't I think I got your name but I can tell we are the same cause I can see you eyeing me So why don't you just take a ride with me girl, I can give you what you need and, show you a place that will blow your mind With a drum and snare hihat here and there it's this rhyme I'll repair but just to be fair I step out of square or should I say box either way get movin cross the room like a fox see the girl over there?
I'm gonna make her mine She's so precious and divine She should get a fine for a being a distraction a players counteraction she's really really hot with a cherry on top We're dancing oh so stupid she's getting so into it, I feel coerced to explain how lovely she can do it some might say we're vociferous I disagree and so does she because she wants me and she's so emphatic so let's go make some magic Temptation's burndensome inside forget morals just for tonight let's get so crazy we can't hide our feelings deep inside

So hey there,
I can let you walk away but I would never be the same cause everything you've given me's worth way to much
