All I ever see is
One or two feet in front of me.
And no matter how far I get,
I always got one demon left.
And all the time I gave,
I dug myself a deeper grave.
It's not the same.
I need to wake up
'Cause this ain't a fucking game.

I need to know where I stand
'Cause I don't need another friend.
Why can't things once just go my way.
Stop telling lies to me.
I know it seems like every day.
Things don't go my way.
Things don't go my way.

All I ever see
Is centimeters in front of me.
And no matter how far I get,
I always got one problem left.
And all the time I gave,
I dug myself a deeper grave.
It's not the same.
In the end (in the end)
I'll be the one to blame.

I need to know where I stand
'Cause I don't need another friend.
Why can't things once just go my way.
Stop telling lies to me.
I know it seems like every day.
Stop telling lies to me.

I need to know where I stand
'Cause I don't, no I don't need another friend.
No I don't need another friend.
Just let me know where I stand.
