(Chorus)

It's Boo Time

Boo Time

It's Boo Time

(spoken)

Stop it.

(Mike on Lead)

When every wanker's wound up tight,
frigid, fractious, and forthright,
the plebes plugged up with plebescite,
Trim the trad, go troglodyte

(All)

It's Boo Time

Boo Time

Boo Time

(Mike)

When obligations grow obtuse,
New neckties knab you like a noose,
The clown, the cleric, the recluse
All crank the sluice on their caboose.

(All)

Something that you buried,
way down the estuary,
Sharp and incendiary,
locked in a box of lead I said.

(guitar solo)

(Mike)

Mr. Metro mooned the meek mundane, set sail on seas of cellophane
Mapped the mists of mauve membrane
Old friends all sang 'Auf Wederzeine'.

It might be howling on all fours,
Or strolling naked out of doors,

Perhaps a herbal remedy,
Reminds the mind what holds the key.

(All)
Something that you buried,
way down the estuary,
Sharp and incendiary,
locked in a box of lead I said.

(Dave)
It's not forbidden to be what you are.
Dip into that great big cookie jar.

(Mike)
where it's always Boo Time

(All)
It's Boo Time
Boo Time
It's Boo Time
Boo Time
It's Boo Time
Boo Time

(Mike scat solo)

It's boo, it's boo, it's boo.
