You see the light begin to fade
You know we're threats
Too late you won't escape from the nightmare
It's only in your head
It's a nightmare
So close your eyes and say your prayers now.

There's a voice in the dark and it's clear and loud
Sure you can run, but you won't get out, alive
Stay superstitious, abandon faith
Nothing is sacred and nothing's safe, tonight

You see the light begin to fade
You know we're threats
Too late you won't escape from the nightmare
It's only in your head
It's a nightmare,
So close your eyes and say your prayers now.

There's a voice in the dark and it's clear and loud
Sure you can run, but you won't get out, alive
Stay superstitious, abandon faith
Nothing is sacred and nothing's safe, tonight

You see the light begin to fade
You know we're threats
Too late you won't escape from the nightmare
It's only in your head
It's a nightmare
So close your eyes and say your prayers now.
