You were strange from the start
I can't stop lying to myself
And things had lined up so well
But I'm too tired to tell

And I can't make out what she says
Watch, watch, watch, watch me while I leave
Cause I don't think she'd be impressed
Can't take, take, take anything from me

Well I look out for my close friends

I know they're trying to get out
Just end up at the hotel
Cause I'm too fucked up to care

And I can't make out what she says
Watch, watch, watch, watch me while I leave
Cause I don't think she'd be impressed
Can't take, take, take anything from me
