So it seems I'm better off than you,
Or this is what I should hope,
Â'Cause we are dead,
But you'll miss out, I know.
It's not what you think,
Â'Cause you were fine,
And I am so sure
Â'Cause he works too much time.

And I can't trust myself being this way,
I might overreact, he says he wants his pay.
And all the things IÂ've promised you are more than
words conversed,
I'm tired of being followed, three times should be enough.
I'll go.

I can't wait, they'll turn around for me

Once they know where I've gone,
Yeah, we aren't dead,
But they'll never give up.
They won't let us sleep.
So let's call Jer,
And I am so sure
That he'll get us I swear.

And I can't trust myself being this way,
I might overreact, he says he wants his pay.
And all the things IÂ've promised you are more than
words conversed,
I'm tired of being followed, three times should be enough.
I'll go.
