Lights shine on me
Bind you, blind me.
Oh, honey can't breathe.
Make time, rewind.
Fuck all the damn time
I loved you only

Waiting for love to come home
Oh how you stand down always all alone
Now my head keeps its own company
Askin how long will it be

Oh, breathe
Always lonely
Oh, breathe
Naturally lonely

If I could make one heart unbreak,
I'd still find heartache.
Your eyes from mine, stole from their shine
Hiding my thoughtcrimes

Waiting for days to go bye
Watching clouds slowly drift by & by
Now my bed keeps its own company
Sleeping alone with my dreams

Oh, breathe
Always lonely
Oh, breathe
Naturally lonely

Oh, breathe
Always lonely
Oh, breathe
Naturally lonely
