"Prepare For The Fight"

Looks like you've had enough for one life this year
I'll take you away from here / if just for a night
I'll drive you to wherever you want to go
We'll turn on the radio / won't stop till it's light

Warm nights to dream into your eyes
Hold tight, laugh into your life
Stretch wide, taste the end in sight
I'll lift you up, PREPARE FOR THE FIGHT!

I'll lift you up inside / I'll be right by your side
On into the night, PREPARE FOR THE FIGHT!

God only knows the trouble within your heart
Alone and afraid of the dark / you don't make a sound
Time comes to face what lies beyond your door
And what are you waiting for / I'm here by your side

Warm nights to dream into your eyes
Hold tight, laugh into your life
Stretch wide, taste the end in sight
I'll lift you up, PREPARE FOR THE FIGHT!

I'll lift you up inside / I'll be right by your side
