sitting round the table toasting to old love wondering if we'll make it through this year People say it's so damn easy you just have to believe well I'm sorry baby i cannot see that way it takes allot to be untruthful but more to speak your mind so I say maybe this might end in time

Whatever you want
whatever you need
Just pretend it's love
and we'll be happy again

We talk about our parents and which one's won't pull through the stupid mistakes as family's come unglued He said i used to love you i don't know why I stopped I'm sorry baby
there must be something wrong

Whatever you want
whatever you need
Just pretend it's love
and we'll be happy again

Yeah I like this
I could stay all night
Listening to you talk Across the flicker of light sounding like and Angel
