It's not me, it's my disease
What you think ain't what you feel
So if I please you
Then please please me
And I'll let you smoke my apathy

Devil staring at your tits
And I'm the whiskey on your lips
You're the joke that makes me laugh
You're the angel on my back

Yeah, yeah, oh oh yeah
Yeah, yeah, oh oh yeah

I sent your mommy back to bed
And I dropped your daddy on his head
Made your sister run away
And I fucked your brother, turned him gay

No one here but you and me
No one here to hear you scream
So let me help you with your pants
Let me see your boogie dance

Yeah, yeah, oh oh yeah
Yeah, yeah, oh oh yeah

And then I sing my song, yeah
