(Chorus x3)

Mashed potatos, we're unable to row, riding on a gravy
boat

Oh oh oh oh oh oh-oh gravy boat!

(Jamie Madrox)

We run shit like constipation on Ex-Lax

All up in your pocket like Uncle Sam and the income tax

Can you relax when shit is run a mile a minute?

Play the industry like pussy, grab your dick and get up in it

(Are you in it to win it?)

As we prevail, with shit so obese that it's tipping the scale

I been to Hell, heavy hot mothafucka walking the Earth since child birth

Never went to school, and when I did, I ate my homework

Never played a fool, and if I did, I was a poser

You can't blame a nerd for trying to get closer

(Now I'm the poster boy!)

For geeks and freaks and chainsaw murderers that seldom ever sleep

They call me Stay-Puft Marshmallow

Man cause I was so fat my arms looked like they were sectioned off in rubber bands

Would it ever change?

I prayed and hope it

Throw a scoop of mash potatos, see the chorus for the gravy boat

(Chorus x3)

Mashed potatos, we're unable to row, riding on a gravy

Oh oh oh oh oh oh-oh gravy boat!

(Monoxide Child)

I'm on D!

Obstruction of justice and all that Fuck the cops, where my mothafucking dogs at?

Your corner boy with the teddy bear nose, and the fake ass assortment of hoes

I'm changing clothes like a true scrub, maybe twice a week

And smoking weed till my eyeballs bleed
Once I hit the Lotto Crazy money, millions and G's, and then I split that shit on the trees Treat me like the freak I am Don't ever route me on a tour to Japan, I base it all up on my sound scan So glad you leave my tastebuds fiending, with a slow jam singing, and some fake thug clinging to ya I see the gangstas just walk on through, and ain't a mothafucking thing you can do Shit, my brain blew out on concrete, but my feet keep moving to another beat Like the Jedi Luke Skywalker

(Chorus x3)

Mashed potatos, we're unable to row, riding on a gravy
boat
Oh oh oh oh oh oh-oh gravy boat!

(Chorus x3)

Mashed potatos, we're unable to row, riding on a gravy
boat
Oh oh oh oh oh oh-oh gravy boat!
