Built in 1803 by Pagan settlers...
Krossroads inn has been responsible for over ten thousand untimely deaths Rated number one in haunted location in the world according to the spirit guides Rumor has it that...?

[MADROX]

Got there in amazement first haunted place I've ever stayed in all night up to this point was just chicken feet this the real deal welcome to the big leagues thrill seeker with a video cam in hand ill be damned if miss a shot of the century on the count if i was up there with video photography so i would be a little bit dumb if i didn't come with state of the art for the hunt there's a curse that whoever signs the legend with full name will never be allowed to return from where they came so to prove it all wrong i jotted mine down fast put my middle initial between my first and my last am I cursed? so i laugh signed it like an autograph even left a note under the time stamp who am I to believe that this shit could be real as the camera rolls and records what i feel.

[CHORUS]

This is where my problems begin, after just one night at the krossroads inn cause you can't check out after you check in after just one night at the krossroads inn.
I've got to live it up even though the deads around I've got to live it up screamin' crawling out of the ground I got to live it up even though the ghosts are scared I've got to live it up twist and spin around in the inn. I've got to live it up.

signing the hotel legend registration will prove what seems to be a funny hoax after all still what lies ahead just up them winding stairs is sure to be solid proof to any spectator

[MONOXIDE]

Up the stairs in a couple of quick leaps hoping the camera catches everything in between I reach the top now I'm in the hallway walking I whip around quick cause I swear I heard talking and my camera drops and the house it goes black all of a sudden I feel a hand on my back lights come on I'm freaking out I can hear the people walking on the top of the house room flickers blue light catching my attention I can see the reflection of someone standing there I got the cam and I'm holding it steady and I'm thinking I get the pictures of whatever and im outta here. door opens to an empty room and consumes my innabition to explore, the moon was the flickering light that I seen in the crack of the door I'm alright I gotta make it to the end of the night.

[CHORUS]

The shadow of night lifts for the passing morning we find two thrill seekers now bound to this unholy structure in reality believe they are still alive and will continue to attempt to break free from the destiny that cannot be changed

Covered in shards of glass out through the window and ended up in the lobby on the floor on my ass (I got up and brushed off) not fooled but confused imma break every window in effort to get thru every door locked shut with the skeleton key as admiritions appear and disappear in front of me (I'm goin outta my mind) as the camcorder batteries start to die I'm the only one here still alive theres a lady in all white floating down the hall that says welcome home sweety as her head falls off now this dirty dock dont smell home to me but I'm trapped in krossroads and it wont let me leave

[CHORUS]

Let this be a lesson to all of you who has to reach out and contact the world of beyond you young people with your electical devises respect for the dead is something you will never learn until you are truely amongst the dead (maniacal laughter)we want to express what we feel with those who mourn with us today in this cathedral and around the world
