Verse 1 - Monoxide]

And I can feel it now

Its more obvious than ever theres a problem and I better try to figure out

If I'm willing to solve em' or ignore em' like a mental child

It seems like it's been a while

Since I had an answer to one of life's riddles - I'm riddled out

And now I'm stuck in this mental house and these four walls

Are driving me crazy

And I'm begging em' all to take a different route

Somebody save me

All I see is madness on a daily

It's getting out of hand like droppin a baby

All the pills I keep slappin' away when they try to medicate me

I'm a danger to my safety

And my angers got me strapped in a jacket and most times lately

I re-act to the fact that it's all here to change me

With a middle finger to the face I stay the same me

[Hook - Blaze]

(lift me up)

In life the pressure's so heavy that I feel I'm falling to
the wayside

If only I can get away from everything, spread my wings and then fly

(lift me up)

I know I wasn't born on this earth to become a failure
and die

If only I can get away from everything spread my wings
and then fly

[Verse 2 - Madrox]

Our life is unclear shed a heavenly tear

Forefathers we still toughin' it out down here

In the midst of mankind

Where moneys so tight they cuttin' throats for pennies nickels and dimes

It's hard to walk a straight line when the road curves like a snake
And most leaders are cowards, liars and fakes
Who should I follow? In fear I pose a question Your response, 'stay strong son and pick a direction'
I'm not sure if I possess the confidence to carry on
But I'm only here for today and tomorrow will be gone
Its an example of scenarios Use your time to leave a mark stronger than a miracle felt in a soul
To a believer, you don't have to say it twice
To a skeptic, I'm sure no proof will ever suffice
To a sinner, it was over before it ever began To the lost and lonely, sometimes they only need a friend

[Hook - Blaze]

(lift me up)

In life the pressure's so heavy that I feel I'm falling to
the wayside

If only I can get away from everything, spread my
wings and then fly

(lift me up)

and die

If only I can get away from everything spread my wings
and then fly

[Verse 3 - Madrox]

You cant stop greatness

It has a way of shining through any gimmic or fake shit
My aspirations to make it

Don't make it easy for somebody trying to do it for real better believe me

Fly with me

Flap your wings slow

Feel the ground beneath your feet begin to go

Away from me I'm excited with energy

A vision of clarity rise above the storm for solidarity

[Monoxide]

And your popularity is a drop in the Berring sea

And apparently your nothing but average

I'm a dangerous package

Drive you all in my daydream

I'm laughing like a jackel as I spread my wings and elevate free

I know you hate me

But in the grand scheme deep in your heart you wanna thank me

Cause were the same we Are all looking for escape from pretty much the same things

[Hook - Blaze]

(lift me up)

In life the pressure's so heavy that I feel I'm falling to
the wayside

If only I can get away from everything, spread my
wings and then fly

(lift me up)

and die

If only I can get away from everything spread my wings
and then fly
