Gather we will each in search of a thrill
A reason for feeling the needing to kill
To stop whats happening to silence the screams to not be afraid to sleep and dream To feel in control and to take it all back to fall into into peice as the sky turns to black hope you got what you wanted this wonderful wish To kill everyday until nothing exists in the world but you your the last one alive but with no conflict to confront
will there be a reason to survive will the anger just die or will you kill that as well as you sit all alone in your personal hell

WELCOME TO THE WICKED

[In background:]
(Ohhh.... I'm laughing with the wicked)
(Ahhh...)

To Wish I Could Kill Everyday
