I can see your eyes glitter from down the hall
I wait desperately at night, waiting for your call
You come over my subconscious mind
Your beauty has somehow left me blind
And now I cannot stop thinking about you
That is why I left

What should I do,
should I still stand here?
I don't know but my senses are going wild.
Your beauty hypnotizes me,
Then I throw you down the ground,
I'm just going crazy.

You have become my possession,
You are my darkest obsession,
I cannot deny you're still in my mind
I can't leave your memories behind
'Cause you possess me,
Girl, you possess me,
'Cause you possess me,
Girl, you possess me,
'Cause you possess me,
Bitch, you possess me,
'Cause you possess me,
Girl, you possess me.

(Break it down)

But I don't want to stop,
My memories make me hot,
And I still cannot sleep.
(Insomnia, runs through my veins)
And I cannot deny this fire burning in my eyes.
Will you help me keep that fire alive?
(Deep-)
For you.
What can I do,
for your satisfaction?

What should I do,

should I still stand here?
I don't know but my senses are going wild.
Your beauty hypnotizes me,
Then I throw you down the ground,
I'm just going crazy.

You have become my possession,
You are my darkest obsession,
I cannot deny you're still in my mind
I can't leave your memories behind
'Cause you possess me,
Girl, you possess me,
'Cause you possess me,
Girl, you possess me,
'Cause you possess me,
Bitch, you possess me,
'Cause you possess me,
Girl, you possess me.
