If my happiness is just a game to you
Then i'm gone away, so gone
If i've become more of the same to you
Then i'm gone, away so gone

And i'm feeling kind of like
I'm a child caught in the weather
And i'm feeling kind of tired
Wish i had strength enough to stop and let you go

If my happiness is just a game to you
Then i'm gone away, so gone
If i've become more of the same to you
Then i'm gone, away so gone

And i'm feeling kind of like
I'm a child caught in the weather
And i'm feeling kind of tired
Like a change, coz i can't bare this mess
I'm feeling kind of tired
Wish i had strength enough to stop and let you go
Let you go
