Just browsing through a magazine
I'm trying to fill my girlfriend need
I'm walking up and down the stairs
Hoping for blue eyes and blonde hair

I just want to be found
I just want to be found by you
I just want to be found
And i just want to be found by you
But i'm a stupid fool yeah

I met a girl the other day
Thought everything was going OK
We're at the park a real pretty scene
Then she said words that were just so obscene

I just want to be found
I just want to be found by you
I just want to be found
And i just want to be found by you
You've played your games
I'm in for keeps
And now i'm a fool

Coz i'm the freak from the magazine
I called you, but you don't want to be found, you don't want to be found
I'm the freak from the magazine
I called you, but you don't want to be found, you don't want to be found
