You will see the pain that she's going through
Every time you hurt her
But she wants to be with you all her life
You know you caught the ball
But she's in love with you
So she'll bop or say fault
It's not till she only asked for one thing
What do you have to say now?

You shouldn't have to think twice
Follow my advice
All you need to do is love her
She needs some loving and affection
No no more neglecton
We all know that love hurts

Just love her, just love her
Just love her, just love her
Just love her, just love her
Just love her, just love her

I'm tryna let you know
She don't ask for much
All she wants is love
I'm tryna let you know
She don't ask for much
All she wants is love

You ignore even when she call you
Even when she needs you
It hurts, she's down
She cries at night
You don't even know

Why must you make her suffer?
Can't you just show her that you love her?
She's so beautiful
You're too delusional
You're gonna end up losing her

You shouldn't have to think twice

Follow my advice
All you need to do is love her
She needs some loving and affection
No no more neglection
We all know that love hurts

Just love her, just love her
Just love her, just love her
Just love her, just love her
Just love her, just love her

I'm tryna let you know
She don't ask for much
All she wants is love
I'm tryna let you know
She don't ask for much
All she wants is love

Just love her, just love her
Just love her, just love her
Just love her, just love her
Just love her, just love her
