[Main Verse: Mr. Lil' One] I was walkin' in the night, I met this cat named Satan He wore a red shirt Some Dickies and a cape, and He said, "Your name is Uno, I been followin' your life I see you settled down, you got some kids and a wife I got a proposition To better your position I know you got some heat and wanna Get out the kitchen" I said, "Listen Back the fuck up, you best to slow down I know who you are I been doin' good for months now Leave me alone, what the fuck is goin' on" He said that I owe him for the times he got me home He said, "You got it wrong, Mister Child Of The Corn Remember Lodi Dodi, drank Three from The Sworn It goes to your Condolences, they need to hear the Voices Now go and load the musket, let me hear you say, 'Fuck it' A pocket full of 'duck it' Rememberin' your bucket A finger on the trigger, all the bullets you were duckin' The Boogiemani, remember, named your album after me If I wasn't there to guide you, where the fuck would you be I gave you Walk Away, we was together, now you lame We had each other's back like the 'nac and Alize" Hey "Wait a minute, dawg, now you comin' at me foul You be pullin' my strings since I was a little child You put me through some shit, had me walkin' in the dark Now that I think about it, it was bullshit from the start Did crimes cause of you Did time cause of you Lost my motherfuckin' mind a million times cause of you It's over now, bounce, you no longer lead the way I saw the true colors you revealed along the way You didn't lead you could of, didn't do what you should of And anything you asked of me, I bet you that I would of They feed you Be you Resurrect and teach you Save all the innocent souls That you preached to The death gave the karma, the pain and all the drama Groupies and the fame, you can have 'em if you wanna I feel my heart racin' Back and forth, pacin' Strugglin' to fight the situation that I'm facin' Thought I see the light coming, left the things at ease I told God 'Please,' I was weepin' on my knees I heard ya loud and clear, just like daddy disappeared To my women and my men, here's my prayer, AMEN" [Sam Hart] (Verse 1) Whisper in the wind Like howling at the moon So much left unsaid, my friend The end came way too soon Laughin' in the rain Can ease the pain, if you let it drown you None inside and foolish pride Is built of walls around you I never ever wanna be I never wanna be the one Trapped underneath the heavyweight So much left undone Chorus: Sam Hart I wanna fly high I wanna be free I wanna be just like me I wanna fly high I wanna be free I wanna be me Repeat Chorus (Verse 2) Whisper to myself Like praying in my sleep Can't share with no one else They're buried way too deep Like dancin' in the sun It's so much fun Until it hurts you Playin' God, weak facade Your soul will overturn you
