Little missy,
You're the apple in the corner of my eye,
and I'm gonna try,
To treat you like a queen,
And I won't lie to you,
Yah, I promise to be true,
So kiss me when you get the chance to.

Little missy,
You're the comet in the corner of my sky,
And I'm gonna try,
To show you things you never seen,
And I won't lie to you,
Yah, I'll only tell the truth,
I'll kiss you when I get the chance to.

Little missy,
You're the day dream in the corner of my mind,
And I'm gonna try,
To take you where you've never been,
And I won't lie to you,
Yah, I promise to be true,
So kiss me when you get the chance to.
