You can't keep your head on straight the way the others do
You spend your nights in the city, you sleep away the afternoon
Ooh, and I'm alright when you need it Take your time
'Til you're ready for something new

You sure can start
You sure can leave me alone
The tricky part is to come back home

Said your hands are pretty
Everything about you is cool
You swing around in the evening humming someone else's tune
Ooh, and I ask why would you lead on
You reply
Because I can because I can

You sure can start
Sure can leave me alone
The tricky part is to come back home

Oooooh
Oooooh
Oooooh
Oooooh
Oooooh oh

You sure can start
You sure can leave me alone
The tricky part is to come back home
