When you surround yourself with lunatics
And crack addicts...
And when you find yourself falling down...
On the inside...
I will not be surprised, but i will fake it
If you can't shake it
I can kick it..
I will not be surprisied, but i will fake it.
If you can't shake it
I can kick it..

If i spot you across a dirty diner
I'll be waitin

And i will miss the days, we sat together
Misbehaving... acting stupid
Someday when things are slow, we'll get together
We'll burn this city down.. again
Someday when things are slow, we'll get togehter
We'll burn this city down... Together

Someday when things are slow again,
We'll burn the city down!
Someday when things are slow again,
We'll burn the city down!
