It's funny I feel like I felt before

Late at night on the kitchen floor

Staring at the wonderful words on the fridge

Wondering what you meant by your message

It's funny I haven't noticed for a while

My next door neighbour has the nicest smile

If I remember her name I'll never forget her

I'm spelling it out with colourful letters

You and me equals we

It's just as simple as A B C D E F G

It's funny I feel like I felt last night

If I dream another plane crash

I swear I'll book a flight

But home is where the heartache is

At least that's what you wrote on the front of the fridge

You and me equals we

It's just as simple as pi r squared

To the power of

3... You and me

4... You and Eleanor

5... You and Clive

6... You and Beatrix

7... You and Kevin

8... You and Kate

9... You and Brian

10... You and my best friend!

It's funny I feel I was meant to exist

Late at night reading the shopping list

My next door neighbour smiling from afar

And home is where the cornflakes are

You and me equals we

It's just as simple as A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P !
