"Friendless Summer"

Today of all days you decided
That you'd drop in uninvited
You were ever so excited
You were never so in love

And this time it's requited
If I looked less than delighted
I was trying hard to hide it
But not trying hard enough

That's fantastic - that's sarcastic
But forgive me the theatrics
I've been catching up on classics
And the springtime's been and gone

And I didn't see the dangers
Of hoping nothing ever changes
Till we said goodbye like strangers
For the first time in so long
"So long"

There's only me to blame
But I'm lonely all the same

Today of all days you decided
That you'd drop in uninvited
You were ever so excited
You were never so in love
So in love

There's only me to blame
But I'm lonely all the same
