"How To Tie A Tie"

Not for the first time
I'm having second thoughts
In the days we used to shoplift
I was always getting caught
But we were penniless
And penitence was more than I could afford

For the last time:
You'll be fine
That was forever ago
And better left behind
At the strangest of times
It weighs on your mind

If we're not getting better
At least we're getting by
Not working's not working
So give something else a try
I'm watching closely
While my girlfriend shows me how to tie a tie
