We shook hands and parted ways
The sun danced on his eyes
Financial matters were cast aside
I'll sleep well tonight

I had to leave this place behind
See some colour for the first time in my life
You said you were ready
But you weren't as ready as I
And I'll sleep well tonight

The sound of the street
Happiness complete

Looking back on brighter days
A microscope on how the simple things are done
But don't look too long to the sun
'Cause you'll see faults
As there are faults in everyone

I had to leave this place behind
See some colour for the first time in my life
You said you were ready
But you weren't as ready as I
And I'll sleep well tonight

Spring and summer meet
Happiness complete

It's all clear this afternoon
Time has passed me by
But you'll find out all too soon
You'll find out all too soon
That time was wrong and I was right
I was right

Time and time and time and time again
Time and time and time and time again
Hey hey cuckoo
Running away or running to?

Time and time and time and time again
Time and time and time and time again
From every window a different view
Running away or running to
